Draft Letter to the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario (HRTO Registrar)
(File 2025-64274-I)
Dear Registrar,
I am writing as the self-represented Applicant in the above-noted matter to express serious concerns regarding procedural fairness and to seek urgent direction.
I believe I had advanced a strong case supported by evidence and submissions, including a Form 10 Request for an Order (production of documents) filed December 1, 2025, which, if acted upon, would have provided central evidence relevant to discrimination, reprisal, and damages. The prolonged absence of any Tribunal response or direction on this and other procedural requests has effectively prevented the advancement of key arguments, including potential adverse inferences arising from non-production (see e.g., Rule 19 and common law principles applied in human rights proceedings).
The complete lack of engagement with any of my procedural requests since the assignment of the current Adjudicator—including requests for case conference, directions, and the recent adjournment proposal—has placed the case in an indefinite state of limbo. This situation disproportionately affects me as a disabled, self-represented litigant and raises a reasonable apprehension of bias, particularly in a creed claim where the sincerity and practice of the creed form the core of the evidence (Syndicat Northcrest v. Amselem, 2004 SCC 47; HRTO Rule 1.4 requiring fair, just, and proportionate case management).
While I do not presume intent, the effect of the non-engagement has been to nullify months of submissions and filings without explanation, clarification, or opportunity to be heard. This outcome is difficult to reconcile with the Tribunal's duty to ensure procedural fairness and natural justice (Baker v. Canada (Minister of Citizenship and Immigration), [1999] 2 S.C.R. 817; HRTO Practice Direction on Procedural Fairness).
In light of these concerns, I respectfully request that the Tribunal provide immediate direction on the status of the file and consider appropriate remedies to restore fairness, including but not limited to:

- Scheduling a case conference at the earliest opportunity;
- Reassignment of the file if deemed necessary to avoid any apprehension of bias;
- Any other measures the Tribunal considers just in the circumstances.

I remain committed to cooperating fully and advancing this matter in accordance with the Tribunal's processes.
Thank you for your urgent attention.
Regards,
Brendan S. Rose
